

Golf With A Difference

January 20 - 24, 2010

A Palm Springs Golf Clinic with Jeri O'Hara

Join LPGA teaching professional, Jeri O'Hara, for 3 days of golf and instruction at the beautiful Doral Desert Princess Golf Resort in Palm Springs where you'll enjoy 27 holes with impeccable greens and majestic views of the surrounding mountain ranges.

Jeri believes in a comprehensive balanced approach to combining mental energy with technical skill to ensure success in golf. She also believes in communicating effectively on the golf course. She'll help you enhance your game and learn how to play with anyone, anywhere, anytime. Jeri has recently attended two LPGA seminars led by the top golf instructors in the USA. She's brimming with information on how to optimize your golf results and will be sharing many new ideas as well as the latest research results on golf performance.

Your luxurious hotel is just minutes away from world class shopping, dining and all the desert and mountain activities that Palm Springs has to offer. This 4-storey hotel offers 285 spacious guestrooms and suites. All are luxuriously appointed including high speed internet access. The resort features a 5,000 square foot pool area, 10 tennis courts, racquetball and fitness facilities and a full massage therapy centre with saunas, jacuzzi and lap pool.

This is our 4th annual trip to Palm Springs with Jeri O'Hara. Pricing from the hotel is not available at this time but our program will include the following:
